SUMMER SESSION OF 1964

History The Middlebury College Language Schools were the pioneers in the development of segregated, specialized summer schools for the study of modern languages in this country. The German School was founded in 1915, followed by the French and Spanish Schools in 1916 and 1917 respectively. The German School was reopened in 1931; the Italian School was added in 1932, and the Russian School in 1945. These schools have made a distinctive contribution to educational progress in America, and won for Middlebury an international reputation.

The Middlebury Idea Thorough training in the use of the foreign language is the foundation of Middlebury's reputation. These five schools aim to give a mastery of the spoken and written language, and a coordinated knowledge of the life, institutions, literature, history, and culture of the foreign country. The basic Middlebury rule is strictly enforced—the segregation of students from contact with English; complete concentration upon the foreign language; exclusive use of the language in and out of the classroom; and careful attention to the individual needs of each student. Each school has its separate residences and dining halls and a faculty of native instructors. During the entire session, the foreign language is the sole medium of communication in work and play. From the day of arrival, students are pledged to speak the foreign language.

Objectives The schools have long been devoted to the intensive preparation of teachers of languages. At present, the serious shortage of well-trained language teachers makes this function even more significant. The schools have also provided trained linguists for our armed services, for many specialized government agencies, and for scientific research. Language training is essential for those who participate in international organizations, whether political, military, or cultural. It is now recognized that a greatly increased study of foreign languages by the American public is in the national interest. Middlebury offers ideal conditions for such study. The fundamental ideal of the Language Schools of Middlebury College is to help achieve a durable peace and real international cooperation, based on an understanding of our cultural heritage and the thought processes of our neighbors in a small world.
Location  The Middlebury Language Schools are located in a lovely Vermont countryside, at the foot of the Green Mountains, fifteen miles from Lake Champlain. They occupy the campus of Middlebury College, founded in 1800 and still one of the most charming of New England colleges. The summer climate is delightful, with clear dry breezes and cool nights.

No college in the East offers more attractive opportunities for out-of-door recreation. The program of studies leaves late afternoons and week ends free. Groups of students frequently spend an afternoon at a lakeside or hiking in the mountains. Swimming may be enjoyed at Lake Dunmore and in the college indoor pool. Tennis and golf are available. Lake Champlain, Mount Mansfield, Ticonderoga, the Adirondacks, Lake Placid, or the White Mountains: any of these can be visited in a day’s trip.

Atmosphere  The schools endeavor to make everything in the life of a student during his stay contribute as effectively and as pleasantly as possible to the mastery of the foreign language. Similarity of aim among students fosters good comradeship and an esprit de corps; while constant association with instructors at the dining tables, in songs and games, on hikes and picnics, no less than in the classroom, brings both inspirational and intellectual stimulus. Regular programs of musical concerts, informal sings, foreign films, dramatic presentations, outings and sports are organized. A high ratio of instructors to students is maintained, approximately one to eight.

Admission  All the schools are graduate schools. The courses require advanced preparation and real linguistic ability. A few undergraduate majors may be accepted if they are strongly recommended by their professors as having adequate preparation. Students may enter without examinations and without being candidates for degrees. All students are carefully screened and placed in the classes best suited to their advancement.

The Pledge  No student will be admitted to a school unless he is able and willing to use only the language of the school, during the entire session, wherever he may be. This rule, which is a cherished and unique tradition of the schools, and a fundamental of the Middlebury method, is consistently enforced from the moment the student enrolls. It holds good for the individual dormitory rooms, all extra-curricular activities, and excursions. It is all-inclusive. Students may use English in their dealings with the people of the village, but even in these cases, students must not speak English to each other. At the opening of the schools, each student will be required to sign a formal statement, pledging his word of honor to observe this rule. The right is reserved to dismiss students who willfully break it. Only the director or the dean may grant temporary release, upon occasions which may warrant it. If, even after the opening of school, a student is found to be unable to comply with the rules of the school, the administration reserves the right to request him to withdraw and to refund the fees paid.
Academic Status  The quality of instruction offered at the Middlebury Schools is well known. As compared with foreign travel or study, a summer session here is more economical, provides courses better suited to the needs of American teachers, and gives an intensive training not found in foreign institutions. Such study furnishes the indispensable preparation for profitable study in the foreign land. The summer of 1963 brought students from forty-eight different states and sixteen foreign countries. Three hundred twenty-five colleges and universities were represented. Eighty-seven per cent of the students held degrees, and nineteen per cent held the Master’s degree or the Doctorate. The majority of the students are candidates for advanced degrees. Two hundred and twenty-seven Master’s degrees and three Doctorates in Modern Languages were awarded in August, 1963.

Equipment  The Language Laboratory and Phonetics Center is shared by all the schools. All students may use it without charge. It is completely equipped with the most modern tape-recorders and play-backs, disc-cutting recorders, electric pick-ups, and large collections of recordings on tape and discs. It has twenty-seven individual practice studios, with trained assistants in charge. All students, especially those interested in organizing a Language Laboratory, are invited to avail themselves of the Consultation Service offered, by individual appointment, with Prof. Watkins, Director of the Language Laboratory, at his office in Room D.

The College Library, with its new wings, has extensive collections of books and magazines in all five foreign languages. All students have stack privileges. Each school has its own Bookshop, bringing attractive offerings of books direct from the foreign country. Each school also presents its own collection of realia, illustrative material, and teaching aids.

The Wright Memorial Theatre, near Le Château, with its fine auditorium, dramatics equipment, and classrooms, is shared by all the schools.

Credits  Each course meeting daily carries two semester hours of credit. Students who wish credits, transcripts, or recommendations must take the final examinations at the close of the session. Not more than six credits may be gained in one summer by an undergraduate, and not more than eight credits by a graduate student. A graduate student must receive a grade of "B" in a course in order to obtain credit for that course. The undergraduate passing grade is "C" subject to the regulations of the student’s own college.

The Master’s Degree  Candidates must hold a baccalaureate degree from an approved college. To obtain the degree of Master of Arts, an approved program of thirty credits is necessary, usually requiring four summers. Twenty of the thirty credits must be earned at Middlebury, but students transferring six or more credits from other institutions may complete the Master's degree in three summers. See the inside back cover for information about the Graduate Schools of French, German, Italian, and Spanish abroad.

Students desiring to transfer graduate credits earned at other institutions should send the transcripts to the dean of their school before the opening of the session. Graduate credits transferred from other institutions toward a Middlebury degree expire and may no longer be so counted after ten years have elapsed since the study was done. As far as possible, prior approval should be secured for courses intended for transfer. Effective with students who begin graduate work after 1956, graduate credits earned at Middlebury College toward a Master's degree expire and may no longer be so counted after ten years have elapsed since the study was done. Study in a foreign country in courses approved by the dean may be counted. Six credits may be allowed for an equivalent of ninety hours of class exercises followed by examinations. Six credits is the maximum allowed for a single summer session of foreign study. Twenty credits must be earned in the major language; ten may be earned in related subjects approved by the dean. A qualified undergraduate may be permitted to accumulate a maximum of twelve graduate credits applicable toward an eventual Master's degree at Middlebury. Students desiring to count credits taken at Middlebury toward degrees to be secured elsewhere should obtain permission to do so from the institution to which they wish the credits transferred. Degrees are conferred in August or at the Commencement following the completion of the work. A graduation fee of $15 is required.

The Degree of Doctor of Modern Languages Middlebury College also offers, through the Language Schools, the advanced degree of Doctor of Modern Languages (D.M.L.). The main requirements are a thorough knowledge of a major language and its literature; two minor languages; the equivalent of a year's resident study beyond the Master's degree; a year of study in a foreign country; and a thesis written in the major language. Full details will be sent on request.

Living Accommodations Students live in the college dormitories, and board is provided by the college. All rooms are completely furnished by the college; blankets, sheets and towels are supplied. Arrangements for personal laundry may be made after arrival. No accommodations for married couples are available. Students are not encouraged to live in town, because in doing so they fail to receive the full benefit of the Middlebury method. Students who may have a valid reason for preferring to live in town must receive permission from the dean of their school. Since dormitory accommodations are limited, students are urged to apply as early as possible. The right is reserved to close applications in any school at any time after March first. Acceptance as a student does not guarantee dormitory accommodation.

Health Service There is an Infirmary on the campus directed by a resident graduate nurse. She holds regular office hours, and is on call at all times in case of emergency. This service is free to all enrolled students. When the nature of a student's illness requires the services of a doctor, or hospitalization, or special medication, the student assumes all the financial obligations involved, as his fees to the college do not cover them. The tuition fee does, however, include an accident insurance policy with limited coverage which will be explained on request. No special diets can be arranged.

Transportation  Middlebury is halfway between Burlington and Rutland, Vermont. Students not arriving by automobile will go via the N.Y. Central to Albany, N.Y., or via the Boston and Maine to Bellows Falls, Vt.; or via the Vt. Central to Essex Junction (Burlington); and make bus connections on the Vermont Transit Lines to Middlebury. Bus timetables will be provided on request. There is no railroad passenger service direct to Middlebury. There is scheduled airplane service to Burlington from Boston via Northeast Airlines and from New York via Mohawk Airlines. Baggage should be sent by railway express.

Opening of the Session  All the schools will open the session of 1964 on Friday, June 26, and will continue until August 13. The houses of residence will open to receive students on Friday, June 26, and lunch will be served at 12:30 p.m. No guests can be received earlier. Members of the faculty, and waiters or waitresses may, however, occupy their rooms on Thursday night, June 25. All houses will close after lunch, Thursday noon, August 13, and no guests can be accommodated after that time. Commencement exercises will be held on Tuesday evening, August 11.

Enrollment Procedure  Immediately upon arrival, each student should report to the office of his school for enrollment and selection of courses. The offices will be open on Friday and Saturday, June 26 and 27. Students should then pay their bill at the Office of the Cashier on the first floor of Old Chapel. The Language Schools Office is on the second floor of Hillcrest Annex. The first assemblies of the schools are held on Sunday evening, June 28; all students are required to attend. Classes begin at 8:00 Monday morning, June 29.

Fees  The administration reserves the right to make any changes without notice in courses, staff, living arrangements, etc. The following information about fees should be carefully noted.

Rates  Rates in all the schools vary according to single or double occupancy of rooms. The inclusive fee for registration, tuition, board and room will be from $410 to $450. The tuition fee for students rooming in town is $235. A student's entire bill is payable at the opening of the session. A bill will be sent in due time, and students are urgently advised to avoid inconvenience by paying it in advance by mail; otherwise bringing all money for fees in the form of money orders, express checks, or cashier's checks. Checks should be made payable to Middlebury College.

Registration Fee  Each accepted applicant must pay a $50 registration fee when requested by the Language Schools Office. This fee will be credited to the student's total bill and an applicant is considered officially registered only when he has paid this fee. It is required of every student. No dormitory space is assigned until this fee is received. This fee will be refunded only if notice of cancellation is received by the Secretary of the Language Schools before May first; after May 1 no refund will be made.

Insurance The tuition fee also includes a fee for an accident insurance policy with limited coverage.

Auditors All courses in a school are open to auditing at any time without charge by members of that school, or by members of another of the Language Schools on permission of both the respective deans. Visitors to Middlebury, not members of a school, may be permitted to enroll as auditors, on payment of the fee of $25 a week or $100 for four or more weeks, arrangements to be made in the Language Schools Office. All such auditors are not entitled to take part in class discussions, nor to receive the attention of the professor. Auditors may also attend social events and evening entertainments. To enroll as a participating member of a course, a student must pay the full tuition charge. Guests of students cannot be accommodated in the college dormitories.

Enrollment in Two Schools A student enrolled in one school may also enroll for credit in another school, on payment of an additional fee of $25 per course, if by reason of his proficiency, he receives the consent of the deans of both schools. This privilege is subject to the limitations of staff and space, and may not be available in certain heavily elected courses. Students interested in a particular course should inquire in advance.

Late Enrollment All students are required to enroll and pay all fees not later than the first day of instruction. Enrollment after that day will be accepted only by special permission secured in advance from the dean, and will be subject to a fine of $3.00 for the first day and $1.00 additional for each day late during the first week of classes, after which no enrollments will be accepted. Rooms reserved for students will not be held after the second day of instruction unless permission has been secured in advance from the dean.

Transcript Fees One official transcript of a summer's work will be issued without charge on written request to the College Registrar. A fee of $1.00 is charged for each additional transcript. No transcripts will be issued or grades given to students financially indebted to the college, until satisfactory arrangements have been made at the office of the Bursar.

Refunds Owing to fixed obligations for instruction and maintenance, persons arriving late or leaving school before the close of the session must not expect reimbursement of any charges. No allowances will be made for week-end absences.

Veterans Veterans may attend the Language Schools under Public Laws 346 or 550. If a veteran wishes to enroll, he should apply immediately for a Certificate of Eligibility from his local Veterans Administration Agency and send it at once to the Secretary of the Language Schools. Veterans under P.L. 550 should come prepared to pay their fees in full.

Correspondence Correspondence concerning rooms, fees, and other general information, should be addressed to the Secretary of the Language Schools, Hillcrest, Middlebury College; Middlebury, Vermont 05753. The telephone number is DUDley 388-4903 (Area Code 802). Correspondence concerning admissions to a particular school, courses, credits and self-help should be addressed to the Director or Dean of the school concerned as indicated.
This summer, the forty-ninth of its existence, the FRENCH SCHOOL will again demonstrate its attachment to cherished traditions which have been its trademark and a source of its students' loyalties, while pursuing its deliberate and progressive evolution designed to keep it in a leader's position among language teaching institutions.

The Visiting Professor will be M. Jean-Marie Domenach, director of the highly respected magazine Esprit. M. Domenach will discuss Tragedy in the Contemporary World. For balance, Professor Jacques Lusseyran, author of the recently translated And There Was Light, will present the Idea of Happiness in the Eighteenth Century. The Director, Professor Jean Boorsch of Yale, will offer a course on Victor Hugo and His Times. M. Francois Darbon will again direct the theatrical presentations of the School, which he guided to particularly brilliant destinies last summer, and offer his course on the Birth of a Production. Mme Dominique Blanchar, a talented actress schooled in the traditions of Jouvet and Barrault will enhance the professional quality of the plays and conduct the sections on Dramatic Diction. In Methods, the well-known work of the French Audio-Visual Center at Saint-Cloud will be presented by Professor M. Rambaud.

Out of the twenty-eight native teachers in the Faculty, no less than twelve will be coming to us directly from France.

COURSES OF STUDY

I. Language

11. ADVANCED FRENCH STYLISTICS. Designed to give advanced students a finer feeling for French style, a sense for shades of meaning, a mastery of certain difficulties not discussed in more elementary courses. Theoretical lessons in stylistics; advanced exercises in translation. Strictly limited to fifteen students. 8:00 M. TERRIER.

12. ADVANCED COMPOSITION. For students who, having a good knowledge of French, have not yet mastered certain peculiarities of syntax and phrasing. Texts of increasing difficulty translated into French; class discussions. Sections limited to fifteen students. 8:00, 9:00, 10:00, 11:00, 12:00 MM. GUIET, TERRIER, Mlle VINCENT.

13. ADVANCED GRAMMAR AND COMPOSITION. Study of the more complex points of grammar. Intensive practice in writing; weekly French themes. 8:00, 9:00, 10:00, 11:00, 12:00 MM. LÉVY, RABAUD, Mmes MÉLAT, VADON.

14. INTERMEDIATE COMPOSITION AND REVIEW GRAMMAR. A thorough and systematic review of syntax and the fundamental principles of grammar, for less advanced students. (Undergraduate credit only. 10:00 Mme VADON.

Note: A written test will be given early in all the Language Courses. According to the results of this test, students will be assigned to the proper section of the course in which they registered, or to another course in this group.

II. Phonetics and Diction

21. DICTION, INTonation, Elocution. Intended to complete the work done in phonetics. Aims to impart, not an artificial pronunciation, but the expressive and musical shading for French diction, used in ordinary conversation as well as in public reading or speaking. Two sections (10:00 and 12:00, limited to twelve students) will work especially on dramatic texts. Previous training in Phonetics required. 9:00, 10:00, 12:00 Mmes BLANCHAR, MUNIER.

22. ADVANCED PHONETICS. For students with a good knowledge of phonetics and a sufficiently correct pronunciation. Aims to teach the pronunciation accepted among cultivated French people, and to illustrate the practical application of the theory of phonetics to its teaching. 8:00, 9:00 M. MALÉCOT.

23. INTERMEDIATE PHONETICS. A continued study of practical phonetics, with its application to personal pronunciation. Correct formation of French sounds, sounds in isolation and combination, oral exercises and ear training. 8:00, 9:00, 10:00, 11:00, 12:00 M. MALÉCOT, Mme MUNIER, Mles CHAMAILLARD, NASSE.
II. Methods and Professional Training

31. THE TEACHING OF FRENCH IN HIGH SCHOOL. A study of techniques for the teaching and evaluation of listening comprehension, speaking, reading, and writing at the various levels of instruction. Analysis of linguistics, psychological, and pedagogical principles. Review of textbooks, readers, audio and visual materials. Demonstration class followed by discussion 9:00 daily. Methods and materials class 2:15-3:15 three times a week. Miss Ciotti.

33. THE USE OF "REALIA" IN THE TEACHING OF FRENCH AT THE SECONDARY LEVEL. Correlation of the teaching of French with other vital subjects such as the history of French civilization, literature, sciences, art, and music. The creation of a French atmosphere, putting audio-oral practices to work, stimulation of student and parent interest. The organization of a successful Cercle Français, techniques, research and utilization of suitable material: songs, games, dramatizations, exhibits, films. Typical programs, worked out in full. 10:00 Miss Crandall.

Note: All the students of the School, whether or not directly interested in teaching, have access to the facilities of the Realia Museum, and are urged to consult Miss Crandall, in charge of the Museum, about special problems and needs. (See page 23)

34. AUDIO-VISUAL MEDIA AND LANGUAGE LABORATORY METHODS. Intended: 1) to acquaint the student with the various technical aids of the language laboratory and their manipulation; 2) to assess their potentialities and limitations; and 3) to discuss their application to the diverse aspects and levels of language teaching. Practice groups of five students each, for a required one-hour of individual workshop drill weekly. 12:00 M. Watkins.

Practice groups, 2:15, 3:15, 4:15 Laboratory Assistants.

Note: All the students of the School, especially teachers or students interested in teaching, are invited to avail themselves of the Consultation Service offered, through individual appointments, by Professor Watkins, Director of the Language Laboratory, in his office at Hillcrest D.

35. A FRENCH APPROACH TO THE USE OF AUDIO-VISUAL TECHNIQUES IN EDUCATION. A survey of the experiments and achievements of the Centre Audio-Visuel of the École Normale Supérieure de Saint-Cloud. The course will present the general aims, objectives and prospects of the Centre Audio-Visuel, and discuss the methods used for the training of experts, the production of audio-visual material, and research. 8:00 M. Rambaud.

IV. Literature and Civilization

41. THE TRAGEDY IN THE CONTEMPORARY WORLD. The course will study, in the contemporary literature and history of Europe and principally of France, the conflict between liberty and destiny, through which tragedy is born. From political and collective tragedy, which characterizes the period between the Wars (Malraux) to the individual tragedy of existentialism (Sartre and Camus), then to the tragedy of nihilism (Beckett and Ionesco), can be observed the destruction of the transcendental and finally of the meaning of life itself. A basic unhappiness stands revealed in a society that strives toward happiness. Using a sociological as well as a literary approach, the course will try to combine into a single view both the expressed and the implied tragedy of contemporary society.

11:00 M. J-M DOMENACH.

42. VICTOR HUGO AND HIS TIMES. Against the background of the ideological and material evolution of France from the First Empire to the Third Republic, the course will try to illuminate the multiple aspects of the life and works of Victor Hugo: the poet, the dramatist, the novelist, the political and metaphysical thinker and prophet.

10:00 M. BOORSCH.

44. FRENCH CIVILIZATION IN A CHANGING WORLD. The geographical, historical, economic, social, and cultural factors that make an understanding of France and its civilization possible will be studied in the light of the problems which France has to meet, faced as she is with the challenge of a fast changing world.

9:00 M. BOURCIER.

51. LIFE AND LITERATURE IN THE MIDDLE AGES. The civilization and literature of medieval France up to the beginning of the Renaissance. After an introduction dealing with the general spirit and the art of the period, the various literary productions of that age will be studied in modern French versions.

9:00 M'LE BRUEL.

54. TRAGEDY IN THE SEVENTEENTH CENTURY. A systematic study of the trends (from tragi-comedy to tragedy, psychology, external actions and decisions, the heroic life and human nature), techniques (use of the stage, scenery, concentration and its consequences), means and devices, effect of the rise of the opera, through an examination of the careers and masterpieces of Corneille and Racine, and a consideration of their achievements in the perspective of their original background.

8:00 M. DENKINGER.

55. THE IDEA OF HAPPINESS IN THE EIGHTEENTH CENTURY. Historical description and analytical discussion of one of the prominent themes of the eighteenth century, both political and ethical. During this period the pursuit of happiness was considered an inalienable right and an ideal. Two aspects of this search will be studied: 1). the political aspect as demonstrated in Montesquieu, Voltaire, Diderot, Rousseau and some politicians and orators of the Revolution, especially Mirabeau and Saint-Just; 2). the individual, or psychological aspect as exemplified by Prevost, Marivaux, Beaumarchais, Laclos and Bernardin de Saint-Pierre.

10:00 M. LUSSEYRAN.

57. THE ORIGINAL MASTERS OF MODERN POETRY. This course is meant to provide a positive textual analysis of many of the most significant poems of Baudelaire, Verlaine, Rimbaud, Mallarmé and Valéry. These initiators of modern poetry in Europe will be treated like “classics” and strict attention will be paid to their wording in an effort to ward off assumptions and eliminate preconceived notions, and supply a firm and sound basis for enlightened criticism and overall judgment.

12:00 M. DENKINGER.

59. THE FRENCH THEATER FROM 1920 TO 1960. This will be a general study of dramatic currents, works and experiments from the time of Jacques Copeau to our day. Emphasis will be put on individual playwrights, but also on some of the major changes which have recently affected the writing, staging and performing of plays. Realistic playwrights; Pagnol; Giraudoux; Montherlant; Religious dramas: Claudel, Bernanos; Anouilh; Camus; Sartre; the legacy of surrealism and avant-garde theatre: from Apollinaire to Genêt.

61. BIRTH OF A PRODUCTION. The course will aim to show how a theatrical text, created out of the imagination of an author, goes through various stages in the hands of a director: conception of the direction and the sets; distribution of roles; rehearsals; final presentation to an audience. Three plays will be studied intensively: Molière’s L’École des Femmes, Musset’s Lorenzaccio, Ionesco’s Le Rhinocéros.

63. EXPLICATIONS DE TEXTES. Reading and interpretation of French texts, according to a method extensively used in French schools and universities. Demonstrations and criticisms by the instructor, preparation and oral practice by the students. The texts studied will be taken from the literature of the nineteenth century.

Note. All students, especially doctorate candidates, who are working on a problem of literary research or any other academic project, should not fail to profit by the individual guidance offered by the school staff. Personal interviews and consultations will be arranged with members of the staff who specialize in the same field.

V. Oral Practice

71. ADVANCED ORAL PRACTICE AND SELF-EXPRESSION. Carefully screened sections, limited to ten students. Intensive training in oral practice and self-expression. A detailed program for each hour; prepared discussion on assigned subjects, with definite vocabulary preparation and the building of discussion skills. (Required for the Master’s degree.)

72. PATTERNS OF CONVERSATIONAL FRENCH. A systematic course on the graduate level for students who already possess a real degree of oral fluency but need to acquire the habit of spoken language patterns which will make possible a spontaneity in self-expression. Students are rigorously screened at enrollment time and during the first class meetings, and sections are strictly limited to ten qualified students.

75. VOCABULARY AND ORAL PRACTICE. A systematic course, based on a daily two-hour plan, for students who understand French readily but need to gain confidence and efficiency in speaking. The students will: 1. attend a required general meeting, for a thorough study of the topic and the materials to be used the next day in the practice sessions; 2. in these sections, carry on actual conversations on the topics and with the material presented on the preceding day. (Undergraduate credit only.)

CURRICULUM REGULATIONS

Credits Two credits are allowed for each course. All courses carry graduate credit, except 14 (Intermediate Composition), 24 (Elementary Phonetics), and 75 (Vocabulary and Oral Practice). All courses carry undergraduate credit. Courses 11 (Stylistics) and 12 (Advanced Composition) may, with the consent of the Dean, be taken a second summer for credit, since the material of the course is varied each year.

Requirements for Degrees Candidates for the Master’s degree must pass, before completion of their work, one advanced course at least in each of the following fields:
Language (Course 12 or 11), Phonetics (23 or 22), Methods (31, 32, or 34), Civilization (44, or any other Civilization course in Group IV), and Oral Practice (71), and earn not less than six credits in advanced courses in Literature. Students who transfer credits for equivalent courses taken elsewhere may request release from the corresponding requirements. A special leaflet, sent on request, gives the rules governing the degree of Master of Arts in French. (For the D.M.L., see page 10).

LIFE IN THE SCHOOL

Use of French  No student will be admitted unless he is able and willing to use only French at all times, during the seven weeks of the session. Each student, when enrolled, will sign a formal statement, pledging his word of honor to observe this rule. The School reserves the right to refuse admission, at the opening of the session, to any student who fails to satisfy this basic requirement, and to dismiss, at anytime, students who willfully break the rule. (See page 8).

A ‘General Information’ leaflet, sent on request, will give all the details of procedure for admission.

Consultations  The office of the Director is in East Forest Hall; that of the Dean is in Le Château. The entire staff of the School is at the disposal of all students for counselling, at regular consultation hours announced early in the session, or by appointment.

Books  The collections of French books, in the College Library and the Château contain over 12,000 volumes dealing with all phases of French study—language, literature, history, civilization, art, and teaching methods.

General supplies, dictionaries and textbooks published in this country can be purchased at the College Bookstore, in Proctor Hall. La Librairie française, in Carr Hall, attempts to reproduce a bookshop in France, handling French classics and reference works, but specializing in contemporary novels, poetry, drama, and non-fiction.

Realia Museum  A unique collection of illustrative material—provincial costumes, models of regional houses and furniture, dolls, Guignol accessories, children’s books, magazines, games, posters, postcards and photographs, also extensive files of other suggestions, and appropriate addresses—is on display, and may be consulted during regular daily hours.

Language Laboratory and Phonetics Center  Available to all students is this modern center for the integrated use of scientific methods and equipment in all phases of language learning. Consisting of all kinds of electronic apparatus, installed in individual listening-and-recording rooms, and a large collection of recordings on tapes, it is open during regular hours, with trained assistants in charge, and consultations are arranged with members of the staff for individual coaching and correction of recordings.

Other Equipment  In addition, the School is well supplied with all types of diversified equipment—maps, chart, film strips and slides on French geography, history and art. Movies of an instructional nature are shown and discussed. Extensive use is made of mimeographed or lithographed material, each class being supplied with outlines, bibliographies, and exercises, free or at nominal cost.

Planned Activities The organized activities of the School are designed to make the life of the students as enjoyable and as profitable as possible:

- Formal lectures, or informal “causeries,” are occasionally presented by the Director, other professors, or visiting guest lecturers.
- A weekly “Gazette” is published by the School, giving advance notice of all interesting events, information about job openings, etc.
- Every Sunday morning, the College Chapel is used by the French School for an hour of instrumental and vocal music, and readings from spiritual or philosophical writings. The French School Choir of one hundred voices is a celebrated feature.
- In cooperation with the other Language Schools, the French School also presents foreign moving pictures, on Wednesday afternoons and evenings, and chamber music or vocal concerts by guest artists, on Sunday evenings.

Picnics, community sings, sports, and a picturesque buffet lawn-supper afford occasions for continued association with the faculty and easy, spontaneous, use of the language. Above all, the School is able to offer five dramatic presentations during the summer, usually on Friday nights. Carefully prepared, with painstaking attention to scenery, lighting, costuming, and staging, they always attract a large and appreciative audience, provide relaxation, and acquaint the teacher-students with simple yet effective plays that can be duplicated in their own schools without undue effort.

Dormitories The main dormitories of the French School are Le Château, Forest Hall, and Battell North, Center and South.

The identifying feature of the French School, and a cherished landmark of the campus, le Château was inspired by the Pavillon Henri IV of the palace of Fontainebleau. It contains two salons, two classrooms, a library, and the offices of the Dean.

In Forest Hall, one of the finest dormitories on the campus, all rooms are single. In addition to beautiful reception and dining rooms, it contains the offices of the Director.

Battell North, Center and South, on the approach to the Chateau, are built in a modified Georgian style, with pleasant rooms of modern design.

Dining Halls In the three dining halls of the School, the students gather at small tables, with a member of the staff presiding. Students and staff members rotate according to a prearranged schedule, enabling all to get better acquainted.

Scholarships Each summer, a certain number of scholarships, usually covering part or all of the tuition fee, are awarded on the basis of need, merit, and scholastic promise. Grateful acknowledgement is made of the following special scholarships, included in the total number of available scholarships, and made possible through the generosity of friends of the School:

Two James Richardson Scholarships, by Mrs. James Richardson of Providence, R. I.;
Adraste: ... Ceci un peu plus découvert ...
(Molière's L'Amour peintre, as staged last year by the French School)

The Stella Christie Scholarship, by Mrs. C. C. Conover of Kansas City;
Several scholarships, by anonymous donors;
An unspecified number of scholarships, by the French Government;
A Mlle Léa Binand Scholarship, established by Mrs. Robert Christie, of Montclair, N. J., in honor of a member of long standing of the French School and the Middlebury College French Department Faculties, to be awarded through l'Amicale de Middlebury;
Two $100. and two full-tuition scholarships, by l'Amicale de Middlebury; the Edith Packer Scholarship, in memory of a friend of long standing of the French School, one of the founders of L'Amicale; and the John D. Brennan Scholarship, in memory of one of the first members of L'Amicale, a French School graduate, prematurely deceased in a promising teaching career.

Self-Help The only other way in which a student may assist in defraying his expenses is by waiting on table in the French dining halls, or by helping with kitchen work. Remuneration may vary, depending on the type of work done, but will, in any case, cover the expense of board.

Scholarship and Self-Help Applications Application blanks for either form of financial aid may be obtained from the Dean's Office. They must be filed before April 1st in order to be considered for the first listing of awards. Announcement of awards is made about April 15.
Graduate School in France  Middlebury College also operates a Graduate School of French in France. A selected group of graduate students spend the academic year enrolled at the University of Paris, working under the supervision of a resident representative of Middlebury College. The Middlebury Master of Arts degree is awarded to those who successfully complete an approved program of studies. See the inside back cover of this bulletin.

Placement Service  The French School maintains an active file of offers of teaching positions. This service is available to students without charge.

Amicale de Middlebury  This Association of Alumni, Professors, Students and Friends, of the French School is destined to maintain the spirit of fellowship and comradeship among all those who have been associated with the School, or who approve of its aims; and to promote activities designed to further those aims. Particulars will be sent on request.

Correspondence  Correspondence concerning admission to the school, courses, credits, degrees, scholarships, self-help and the 'Amicale' should be addressed to the Dean of the French Summer School, Le Château, Middlebury, Vt.

Correspondence concerning rooms, fees and other general information should be addressed to the Secretary of the Language Schools, Middlebury College, Middlebury, Vt.
Deutsche Schule

(From June 26 to August 13)

The Middlebury German School, which will hold its thirty-seventh session this summer, is the forerunner of all the Middlebury Language Schools. It was founded in 1915 by Professor Marian P. Whitney, and Professor Lilian L. Stroebe, both of Vassar College. Dr. Stroebe was its Director until 1917. When the School reopened in the summer of 1931, Professor Ernst Feise of the Johns Hopkins University was appointed its Director, and the School was located in the village of Bristol. Upon the retirement of Dr. Feise in 1948, Dr. Werner Neuse, who had been Dean of the School since 1932, was appointed Director. The School returned to the Middlebury Campus in 1951, where it occupies as its center Pearsons Hall, in which it was begun fifty years ago.

Three prominent scholars will come direct from Austria, Germany, and Italy. We are happy to announce the appointment of Professor Dr. Emmy Rosenfeld of the Università L. Bocconi (Milano, Italy) as Visiting Professor. She is well known for her research in German Barock Literature and is the editor of the forthcoming three-volume critical edition of the Barock poet Friedrich von Spee. She will lecture on the Literature of the Barock Period and hold a seminar on Der junge Hofmannsthal.

Dr. Joseph Strelka will come to us from the Austrian Radio Corporation where he holds the position of literary critic and commentator, via the University of Southern California, where he holds a professorship during the spring semester 1964.

Professor Dr. Lutz Röhrich will again represent the Johannes Gutenberg-Universität as Visiting Professor for 1964. Thanks to the generous collaboration of the Cultural Division of the Foreign Office of the Federal Republic of Germany and the Deutsche Forschungsgemeinschaft the German School will again enjoy the presence of one of the outstanding scholars in the field of German Folklore.

LIFE IN THE SCHOOL

The Aims The school is primarily designed for advanced students who, possessing a fair speaking and reading knowledge of German, wish to perfect their ability to use it, and desire to deepen and broaden their acquaintance with German literature as well as with its cultural background and the soil on which it has grown. A limited number of undergraduates who are strongly recommended by their instructors may be admitted.

Accommodations The School's headquarters, dormitory for women, and Social Hall is Pearsons Hall, the same building in which forty-nine years ago the first German School was opened. Faculty and students dine to-together in Gifford Hall, rotating at tables according to a fixed schedule so that all may get better acquainted. After the weekday noon meal, German songs are sung in the Lounge in Willard Hall. The historic Painter and Starr Halls on the main campus will be the School's dormitories for 1964.

Lectures and Plays  Beside a number of scheduled lectures, there will be readings, games, plays and dancing after dinner on a regular schedule. "Literarische Sonntagsandachten," not conflicting with local church services, will be held every Sunday morning.

Recreation and Sports  On the first two Saturdays, the school organizes trips or hikes into the near-by Green Mountains or to lakes in the Champlain Valley. Faculty members regularly participate in these outings, and students will enjoy this period of week-end relaxation during which the foreign language is used in an atmosphere different from that of the classroom. On Tuesday evenings all students are urged to join in the folk dances which are taught on the lawn at the foot of Pearsons.

Bookstore  At the Büchersube in Pearsons Hall books used in the courses may be purchased; also other books imported directly from Germany will be offered for sale at moderate prices.
Professor Panzer explains a geographical point using the Vermont landscape as model.

Opportunities for Service  All waiters and waitresses in the German School dining hall must be able to speak German. Opportunity is therefore offered to a limited number of students to earn their board for return in their service in the kitchen or dining hall. Those interested should file application blanks with the Director of the School before April first.

Scholarships  The German School offers several scholarships of $100.00 or more for the 1964 session. Besides these, three special scholarships are available:

The Martin Sommerfeld Memorial Scholarship, established by the students and faculty in memory of Professor Sommerfeld who taught in the summer of 1939.

The Arno Schirokauer Memorial Scholarship, established by FIDES in memory of Professor Schirokauer who formerly taught in the German School.

The Ernst Feise Scholarship, established by FIDES in honor of Professor Feise who was the Director of the School from 1931 to 1948.

These three scholarships are from $100.00 to 300.00 each. An unspecified number of scholarships by the Government of the Federal Republic of Germany are offered. All are awarded on the basis of need, merit, and scholastic promise. Application blanks may be obtained from the Director of the German School and must be filed before April first. The awards and the appointments will be announced by April 15.
Graduate School in Germany  Middlebury College also operates a Graduate School of German in Germany. A selected group of graduate students spend the academic year enrolled at the University of Mainz, working under the supervision of a resident representative of Middlebury College. The Middlebury Master of Arts degree is awarded to those who successfully complete an approved program of studies. See the inside back cover of this bulletin.

FIDES  Former students, faculty, and friends of the German School have formed a Vereinigung der Freunde der Deutschen Schule (FIDES) whose aim is to keep all friends of the school informed about its activities, and to preserve and promote the spirit of Verbundenheit between them. All members are cordially welcomed to visit the school during the summer.

Address  Correspondence concerning courses, credits, degrees, and admission to the School, should be addressed to Prof. Werner Neuse, Middlebury College, Middlebury, Vermont.

Correspondence concerning rooms, fees, and other general information should be addressed to Secretary of the Language Schools, Middlebury College, Middlebury, Vermont.
THE ITALIAN SCHOOL of Middlebury College was founded in 1932 by
Dr. Gabriella Bosano, Professor Emeritus of Italian at Wellesley College. Dr. Camillo P.
Merlino, of Boston University, was its Director for ten years, beginning with the 1938 session.
Since 1947, Dr. Salvatotore J. Castiglione, of the Institute of Languages and Linguistics, Georgetown University, has been the Director.
The Director is pleased to announce that Dr. Vittorina Fumagalli, Dr.
Anna Martelloni and Mr. Remo Trivelli have been appointed to the faculty for the 1964 session, and that Dr. Pierina Castiglione, Dr. Giuliana Cavallini and Miss Annunciata Costa will continue as members of the Italian School faculty.
The following courses of special interest are included in this year's curriculum: Goldoni's Theater, The Contemporary Italian Novel and The Teaching of Italian.
Included among the gift scholarships available for the 1964 session are five scholarships offered by Dr. Nicholas Locascio, two scholarships given by the Association of Alumni and Friends of the Italian School and several Cesare Barbieri partial-tuition scholarships.
The fourteenth annual meeting of the Italian School Alumni and Friends Association will take place in Middlebury, July 10-12.

THE COURSES OF STUDY

I. Language

1. INTERMEDIATE GRAMMAR AND COMPOSITION. A thorough review of the structure of the language; vocabulary building; written and oral practice, including free composition; reading comprehension; accurate translation. This course is intended for students who have a good elementary knowledge of Italian; it aims to impart a reasonable degree of proficiency in the various aspects of the language.

9:00 SIGNORA CASTIGLIONE, SIGNOR TRIVELLI.

2. ADVANCED GRAMMAR AND COMPOSITION. An advanced course for students possessing a good knowledge of Italian. It will consist of translations from English to Italian of texts of increasing difficulty, and practice in original composition. Frequent reference will be made to grammar and syntax in the systematic study of idioms.

9:00 Signorina Martelloni.

3. ORAL PRACTICE AND SELF-EXPRESSION. Daily training in current Italian, designed to help the student gain assurance in self-expression in the language. Word study, oral reports on specific topics, and a systematic building up of the conversational vocabulary will be based on assigned topics. Use will be made of the tape recording facilities of the Language Laboratory.

8:00 Signorina Costa.

4. ADVANCED ORAL PRACTICE AND SELF-EXPRESSION. Intensive training in oral practice, public speaking and self-expression. A detailed program arranged for each hour; prepared discussion on assigned subjects, with definite vocabulary preparation; short debates, oral reports, oral criticism of books and articles.

8:00 Signor Trivelli.

5. PHONETICS. A practical study of Italian Phonetics, based on the reading aloud of carefully chosen prose and poetry selections; emphasis not only on the correct pronunciation of Italian sounds, but also on the proper intonation of spoken Italian; classroom work will be integrated with extensive use of records and tape recordings.

10:00 Signora Castiglione.

6. STYLISTICS. This course is designed to meet, through carefully planned exercises, the needs of those who have already acquired general proficiency in the language. It aims to develop natural fluency, both in writing and speaking, through emphasizing the difference between what is merely correct and what is Italian.

9:00 Signora Fumagalli.

II. Methods of Teaching

10. THE TEACHING OF ITALIAN. Discussion of methods and problems; examination of audio-visual aids and other materials available for the teaching of Italian; evaluation of textbooks; assembling of material for the teacher’s use in the classroom; development of an experimental course in Italian.

11:00 Signorina Costa.

III. Literature and Culture

11. GENERAL VIEW OF ITALIAN CIVILIZATION. I. (Eleventh through Fifteenth Centuries.)

12. GENERAL VIEW OF ITALIAN CIVILIZATION. II. (Sixteenth through Eighteenth Centuries.) The major contributions of Italian genius to the Western world in literature and in the arts will be considered against the historical background of the sixteenth through the eighteenth centuries.

12:00 Signorina Cavallini.

13. ITALIAN PROSE MASTERPIECES. (To be offered in 1965.)

14. DANTE AND HIS TIMES (THE INFERNO). In the course of three summers the Divine Comedy is read and analyzed in the light of the literary, political and religious ideals of the Middle Ages. In 1964 the Inferno will be the object of special study. This course may be taken for credit in three successive summers.

8:00 Signor Castiglione.

15. SURVEY OF POETRY. A study of the main currents of Italian poetry, from the Duecento to contemporary times; brief consideration of the nature and techniques of Italian poetry; study and analisi estetica of some of its most significant examples.

12:00 Signora Fumagalli.
16. GOLDONI’S THEATER. A representative number of plays by Carlo Goldoni will be discussed. Emphasis will be given to Goldoni's characteristics as a playwright and to the life and ideas of the time as mirrored in his plays.

10:00 Signorina Cavallini.

17. THE CONTEMPORARY ITALIAN NOVEL. A discussion of the main trends in contemporary Italian narrative, as found in such authors as Moravia, Pratolini, Calvino, Buzzati, Vittorini, Pavese, Bassani, Dessi, Cassola and Bianciardi. Special attention will be given to “industrial literature” and to the historical background. Outside readings, class discussions and reports.

11:00 Signorina Martelloni.

19. RESEARCH. All students, especially candidates for the doctorate who are working on a problem of research, are invited to profit by the individual guidance offered by the school staff. Consultations will be arranged through the Director. Such assistance is gladly offered, and students are urged to take advantage of it.

Signor Castiglione and Staff.

Credits Two credits or semester hours are allowed for each course, and all courses count toward the Master's degree. (See also page 5.) Course 2 (Adv. Grammar and Comp.) and Course 6 (Stylistics) may be taken twice for credit, as the material of the course varies each year. Course 14 (Dante) may be taken three times for credit, once on the Inferno, once on the Purgatorio, and once on the Paradiso.

Use of Italian Students must sign and keep a formal pledge to use Italian exclusively for the duration of the session. The traditionally congenial atmosphere and warm spirit of cooperation at the Italian School contribute much to making the student feel that the exclusive use of Italian is both a natural and pleasant task.

Italian Dormitory Forest Hall West, one of the most attractive buildings on the Middlebury College campus, will be headquarters for the Italian School in 1964, both for dormitory and dining hall and for the School’s offices. Equipped with several social rooms and surrounded by spacious lawns shaded by trees, this dormitory lends itself to the development of an atmosphere of friendly informality so conducive to “oral practice”—one of the main features of the Middlebury experience. Dr. and Mrs. Castiglione and other faculty members will reside on campus, thus actively promoting the spirit of good fellowship in an Italian atmosphere.

The Italian Dining Room In the attractive dining hall of the Italian School, the hum of conversation is natural and spontaneous. Prompted and guided by understanding instructors who preside at each table, the students quickly overcome their linguistic shyness. In order to get better acquainted with one another and with all the instructors, students are required to rotate according to a fixed schedule.

Activities The morning hours will be given over to class work, leaving the afternoon free for recreation and study. Students and teachers will meet frequently in the evening for readings, lectures, choral assemblies, and social gatherings. All students are expected to take part in the weekly choral assembly and to attend extracurricular lectures and programs. The school picnics, informal instruction in folk dances, tennis, the popular game of “bocce,” as well as hiking, afford further pleasant relaxation. Members of the Italian School are cordially invited to attend the concerts and films sponsored by the five Language Schools.

Books A well-balanced and constantly expanding collection of Italian books, housed in the College Library, amply provides for the needs of the students. In addition, textbooks and other aids for the teaching of Italian will be available for examination. In Forest West there is also an Italian bookshop at which students will be able to purchase the texts required for class work, as well as dictionaries and a variety of books of classic and modern Italian literature.

Scholarships For the summer of 1964, a number of scholarships are available. These will be awarded on the basis of need, merit, and scholastic promise. Application should be made to the Director before April first; awards will be announced about April 15. Grateful acknowledgement is made of the following special scholarships, made possible through the generosity of friends of the School:

The Italian Teachers' Club of Hartford, Conn., Scholarship, offered for the twenty-fifth consecutive year.

Two scholarships given by the Association of Alumni and Friends of the Italian School of Middlebury College.

Five scholarships offered by Dr. Nicholas Locascio, of New York City.

A number of Cesare Barbieri partial-tuition scholarships, made possible by a gift from the Cesare Barbieri Endowment.

A scholarship given by Mrs. Lucia Moses, of New York City.

Self-Help Another important way in which students may assist in defraying their expenses is by waiting on table in the Italian School dining room.
All waiters and waitresses are students at the school who are able to use Italian exclusively in the dining room. The remuneration for this service is their board, and $40 to be credited to their room charges. Those interested should make application to Dr. Castiglione before April first; awards will be announced about April 15.

Alumni and Friends Association Membership in the Association of Alumni and Friends of the Italian School of Middlebury College, established in 1950, is open to students, past and present, faculty members and friends of the Italian School. The aims of the Association are "to encourage and advance, culturally and materially, the Italian School," to keep its members informed of the activities of the School and its students, and to maintain the warm spirit of cordiality which the members associate with the Italian School.

Graduate School in Italy Middlebury College also operates a Graduate School of Italian in Italy. A selected group of graduate students spend the academic year enrolled at the University of Florence, working under the supervision of a resident representative of Middlebury College. The Middlebury Master of Arts degree is awarded to those who successfully complete an approved program of studies. See the inside back cover of this bulletin.
Correspondence Correspondence concerning admission, credits, and choice of courses should be addressed to the Director of the Middlebury College Italian Summer School, Dr. Salvatore J. Castighione, Middlebury College, Middlebury, Vermont.

Correspondence concerning fees, rooms, and other general information should be addressed to the Secretary of the Language Schools, Middlebury College, Middlebury, Vermont.
Institute of Soviet Studies

Conducted entirely in Russian

Director: DR. MISCHA H. FAYER

JUNE 26 TO AUGUST 13, 1964

Courses are offered in Russian by outstanding native authorities in the fields of the sciences, economics, foreign policy, government, geography, the press and propaganda techniques. The Institute aims to give the specialist in these fields near-native fluency in Russian and competence in the technical terminology of his specialization, not only for reading and research, but also for oral use; and to train students for diplomatic, scientific and other careers. The courses are especially valuable for specialists, scientists, and students preparing for cultural exchange.

Organization Students enrolled in the Institute enjoy all the privileges and share in all the activities of the Russian School. They are pledged to the exclusive use of Russian; they share the dormitory and dining room facilities of the School; they attend the evening lectures, concerts, plays, and all other extra-curricular activities in the Russian atmosphere.

Admission Requirements Adequate command of Russian for advanced specialized study in the language, and its exclusive use in and outside the classroom. Previous training in one or more of the above-mentioned fields.

Credits and Requirements  All courses in the Institute carry two credits toward the M.A. and the D.M.L. degrees. The Institute awards the M.A. degree in the field of Russian and Soviet Area studies. To satisfy the requirements for this degree, the candidate must take the following courses in the Russian School or their equivalents, previously approved by the Director.

Group I—21 or 23

Group II—one survey course of the 19th century (28, 30, 33, 34) and one course on contemporary literature (31 or 39) and one course on an individual author (29, 35, 38, 39)

Group III—a history or civilization course on the Tsarist Period and a history or civilization course on the Soviet Period offered in the Institute.

Similar courses, offered in the Russian School, are also acceptable: (40, 41, 44, 46, 47) with the approval of the Director.

Admission  The Institute is essentially a graduate school and the courses are of an advanced nature, requiring advanced preparation in Russian and in the field of specialization. All applicants must provide evidence of sufficient competence in Russian. A few undergraduates may be accepted if they are strongly recommended by their professors as having adequate preparation. Students may enter without being candidates for degrees. All students are carefully screened and placed in the classes best suited for their advancement.
THE RUSSIAN SCHOOL of Middlebury College was founded in 1945 by the Director, Dr. Mischa H. Fayer. Starting with 40 students and a staff of four, the School's facilities and faculty have increased to accommodate 150 students. The rapid growth of the School testifies to the increasing need in our country for closer knowledge of Russia, past and present, and for deeper understanding of recent trends in her development. Mindful of this fact, the Director has organized a program of courses to answer present needs and to prepare American specialists in the field of Russian studies.

The Director is happy to announce the continuance of the Institute of Soviet Studies in the summer of 1964 in conjunction with the Russian School. The Institute was initiated in 1958 by a grant from the Rockefeller Foundation. In addition to the specialized and technical courses offered by the Institute, the offerings of the Russian School will also be of great interest to government and armed forces personnel and to students of history, political science and the sciences. In its twentieth session, the School, in combination with its Institute, is equipped as never before, to provide thorough training for students of Russia's humanistic culture, as well as for those preparing for teaching, diplomatic, scientific, and other careers.

One of the highlights of the session will be the tenth "Alumni Weekend" (July 24-26).

The curriculum will include the following lecture and seminar courses: Stylistics, History of the Russian Language, Literary Masters of the Nineteenth Century, Survey of Russian Literature to 1800, Fyodor Dostoevsky: His Works and Influence, and Methods of Teaching Russian.

Evening Lectures An especially rich extra-curricular program is planned, including lectures by members of the staff and guest speakers. These lectures are regularly held in the Russian Lounge.

The Curriculum Survey courses are intended as a basis for more specialized courses in succeeding sessions. The research course (50) will afford opportunity for concentrated study on a subject of major interest. Except for certain basic courses offered every summer, advanced work is on a rotation basis, giving the student an opportunity to cover thoroughly, in a period of three or four years, the fundamental phases of Russian thought and letters.

Students in the Russian School may also enroll, without extra charge, for one or more of the specialized courses in the Institute of Soviet Studies, with the consent of the Director, if they have sufficient preparation in the special field.

Program for Teachers To meet the urgent demand for Russian teachers at the secondary and college levels, a special three-year curriculum, also satisfying most of the requirements for the M.A. degree, was initiated in 1959 for qualified candidates. A special certificate will be issued to those completing 18 units in the required courses.

Prerequisites: Courses 11, 12, and 14 or equivalents
First Year: Courses 21, 22 and a 19th century survey course
Second Year: Courses 23, 24 or 25, one course in Group III
Third Year: Courses 29 or 35 or 38, and 40 or 41, and 60
Recommended Courses: 31, 32, 39; 35, 38; 40, 41; 290, 291

THE COURSES OF STUDY

I. Language

1. GRAMMAR REVIEW AND ORAL DRILL. Thorough and systematic review of Russian grammar and basic vocabulary. Drill on pronunciation, conversation, and reading. Intended for students whose background in Russian is insufficient to enable them to carry a full load at the graduate level. (Undergraduate credit only.) Mrs. Kalikin.

11. INTERMEDIATE GRAMMAR AND COMPOSITION. Compositions of gradually increasing difficulty. Study of synonyms and idioms; dictation. Practical application of grammatical principles. Mrs. Isyumov, Mrs. Kalikin, Mrs. Nikoulin.
12. INTERMEDIATE CONVERSATION AND ORAL PRACTICE. Daily training in conversational Russian, designed to provide the student with assurance in self-expression and a basic active vocabulary. Oral reports and class discussions requiring active student participation. Facilities of the Language Laboratory will be used, including listening to tape recordings and self-testing.

Miss Alexeieff, Mrs. Scriabine, Mrs. Nikoulin.

14. PRACTICAL PHONETICS. A course intended for students at the intermediate level who need systematic training in Russian pronunciation. Methodical comparison of English and Russian sounds. The Language Laboratory will be used. Enrollment will be restricted to those most in need of remedial work. Mrs. Vukanovich and Staff.

21. ADVANCED COMPOSITION AND GRAMMAR. This course is designed for students with a good foundation in grammar, but lacking certainty in direct application of their knowledge. Careful examination of difficult points of grammar, with emphasis on syntactical constructions. Practice in the use of idiomatic expressions. The work will consist of exercises, original compositions, and class discussions.

Mrs. Wolkonsky, Mr. Kalikin, Mr. Žekulin.

22. ADVANCED ORAL PRACTICE AND SELF-EXPRESSION. Intensive training in oral practice and self-expression. Prepared discussion on assigned topics with definite vocabulary preparation; oral reports; oral criticisms of books or articles. Intended primarily to develop self-confidence in expressing ideas in Russian. (Not open to students enrolled in course 210.) Miss Alexeieff, Mr. Liwszyć, Mrs. Scriabine.

23. STYLISTICS. Intended for students who wish to develop greater precision in expression and a finer feeling for shades of meaning and style. Reading of texts of various types and difficulty will be combined with written compositions. Mrs. Kosinski.

25. HISTORY OF THE RUSSIAN LANGUAGE. A survey of the development of Russian literary language; its phonology, morphology and semantics. Effects of popular speech and literacy. Readings illustrating important phases in the development of the language, with special attention to modern Russian and to linguistic changes since the Revolution.

Mrs. Kosinski.

II. Literature

30. LITERARY MASTERS OF THE NINETEENTH CENTURY. An analysis of the social, political, and artistic trends of the nineteenth century, as reflected in the fiction of Pushkin, Lermontov, Gogol, Turgenev, Tolstoy, Dostoevsky, and Chekhov.

Mr. Žekulin.

32. SURVEY OF RUSSIAN LITERATURE TO 1800. An introduction to the literature of Russia from earliest times to Pushkin, with special emphasis on such early masterpieces as Slavo o Polku Igorève and the Byliny. Most of the time, however, will be devoted to 18th century authors. Illustrative examples only in old Russian will be used. Lectures, readings, and reports will require only the knowledge of modern Russian. Ample opportunity will be provided for class discussions.

Mr. Liwszyć.

38. FYODOR DOSTOEVSKY: HIS WORKS AND INFLUENCE. Survey of literary and ideological currents of the period (1840–1880). Dostoevsky’s works as related to other literary classics of the time. Evolution of his outlook and novelistic art. Influence at home and abroad. Lectures, oral and written reports, class discussions.

Mrs. Wolkonsky.
III. Civilization

See Institute Courses, pages 49-51.

50. RESEARCH. Degree candidates, who are working on a problem of research in Russian language, literature and civilization, are invited to profit by the individual guidance offered by the School staff. Personal consultations will be arranged through the Director. Such assistance is gladly offered, and students are urged to take advantage of it. Mr. Fayer, with collaboration of members of the staff.

IV. Methods

60. METHODS OF TEACHING RUSSIAN. This course is planned for teachers in high schools and colleges. Study of current methods, plans and techniques. Analysis of text books, programs; teacher's laboratory; class preparation. Mr. Kalikin.

Credits and Requirements All courses carry two credits toward the M.A. and D.M.L. degrees with the exception of course 1 which carries credit toward the A.B. degree.

These courses, or their equivalents, are required for the M.A. degree.

Group I—21 or 23; and 22, or 36; and one of the following: 24, 25, 60.
Group II—31 and 32; 290 and 291; one survey course of the 19th century (28, 30, 33, 34); one course on an individual author (29, 35, 38, 39).
Group III—Two courses (40, 41, 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, 47; or any area course in the Institute).

The following courses are required for the D.M.L., in addition to the foregoing:

A civilization course; a course on one of the individual authors; 30, 33, 34 and 37; and all of the following not taken previously: 24, 25, 60. For all other requirements, see the special leaflet for D.M.L. candidates.
LIFE IN THE SCHOOL

Use of Russian  To qualify for admission, students must be able and willing to speak only Russian during the entire session, even in their rooms and off campus. At the opening of the School each student will be required to pledge his word of honor to observe this rule. Although it is the duty of the faculty to enforce this rule at all times, their sympathetic encouragement to use the language freely will, in a short time, make it appear as the only language natural in the congenial, friendly Russian atmosphere. The School reserves the right to dismiss, at any time, students who willfully break the rule.

Living Accommodations  Stewart Hall, one of the newest and one of the finest dormitories on the campus, will be the headquarters of the Russian School, providing attractive accommodations for the growing school. The view from Stewart lounge is superb. The Director’s Office is in Hillcrest. In Proctor Dining Hall, students will eat in small groups, each table presided over by a member of the faculty. A system of rotation at meals provides opportunity for all to become better acquainted.

Activities  All extra-curricular activities play an important part in mastering the language, and students are expected to participate actively. The schedule of classes is arranged to leave the afternoons free for study and recreation. Picnics, excursions to nearby lakes and mountains, "вечеринки" with musical and dramatic entertainments, lectures by instructors and guest speakers, informal singing, and Russian movies, provide ample recreational activity. Regular evenings for study of Russian dances have been set aside. Weekly sings are held in the Proctor Lounge. Several plays will be staged under the direction of Mrs. Scriabine. The highlights of the session will include the tenth annual Alumni Weekend—July 24–26.

Books  In addition to textbooks, the Russian Bookstore, located in Atwater House, carries classics and up-to-date novels, poetry, drama, and non-fiction. General supplies, and textbooks published in this country, may be purchased at the College Bookstore.

Realia Collection  The purpose of this collection is to acquaint prospective teachers with visual aids which may prove helpful in their teaching; also to display material illustrative of the Russian creative genius—pictures, sculpture, icons, costumes, architectural models, objets d’art, etc., some of which are for sale. The Collection, housed in the Russian School Bookstore in Atwater House, will be open during regular Bookstore hours.

Language Laboratory  Russian School students are urged to avail themselves of the facilities afforded by the Language Laboratory, including equipment for speech recording, play-backs with earphones, and individual prac-practice rooms. The laboratory is open at regular hours. Mrs. Vukanovich will be available for assisting all those interested in improving their speech.

Self-Help Students may assist in defraying their expenses by waiting on table in the Russian dining hall. The remuneration is board, plus a credit of $40 on the room charge. Those interested should apply to the Director before April first. Appointments will be announced about April 15.

Scholarships A limited number of scholarships of $50 to $100 is available. Only students who would be unable to attend without such financial assistance are eligible. These scholarships will be awarded on the basis of need, merit, and scholastic promise. Application must be made to the Director before April first. Awards will be announced about April 15. The Alumni Organization also provides a Scholarship. Application should be made to the President or Secretary of the organization by April first. Only former students of the Russian School are eligible.

The Anastasia Pressman Memorial Scholarship is awarded to a student working for a graduate degree at Middlebury, preferably a prospective teacher of Russian. Application should be made to the Director before April first.

Correspondence Correspondence concerning courses, credits, degrees, and admission to the School or the Institute should be addressed to Dr. Mischa H. Fayer, Director of the Russian Summer School, Middlebury College, Middlebury, Vermont. Correspondence concerning rooms, fees, and other general information should be addressed to the Secretary of the Language Schools, Middlebury College.
THE SPANISH SCHOOL is entering its fortieth session, enriched with a long academic experience. It offers a varied program of Spanish studies, covering all fields of Hispanic culture—language, literature and history, both of Spain and Latin-America.

The School is proud to present a particularly distinguished Faculty. The Visiting Professors will be: Alonso Zamora Vicente, member of the Real Academia Española, well-known Spanish scholar and literary critic, who will give a course on the History of the Spanish Language, and another on some Stylistic Aspects of the Novel of the Generation of '98; and Concha Meléndez, Professor Emeritus of the University of San Juan, Puerto Rico, who will analyze the Prose and Poetry of Alfonso Reyes, and also The Development of the Short Narrative in Puerto Rico. Two new courses will be devoted to Contemporary Poetry: one to Spanish Poetry by José Olivio Jiménez, and the other to Latin-American Poetry by Eugenio Florit. Joaquin Gimeno will present a course on the Poetry of the Late Middle Ages; and the Director Emilio González López will cover the Literature of the Golden Age. Manuel Alvarez Morales will review the trends in the Contemporary Latin-American novel. José Olivio Jiménez will interpret the development of the History of Modern Spain.

Those interested in perfecting their ability in the language can count on the guidance of a group of expert teachers who have made our School the best known center in this field: María Josefa Canellada de Zamora and Angela Dellepiane will conduct courses on Spanish Phonetics; and Roberto Ruiz will teach a course on the History of Spanish Syntax.

Credits Two credits or semester hours will be allowed for each course unless otherwise specified. Course 3 may, with the consent of the Director, be taken a second summer for credit, since the material of this course is varied each year.
Requirements for Degrees  Candidates for the Master's Degree must pass, before the completion of their work, an advanced course in each of the following subjects: Oral Practice, Grammar, Composition, Phonetics, and Methods, i.e. Courses 1, 2, 3, 4 and 10. In addition, at least 10 credits must be earned in the fields of Spanish and Spanish-American Literature and Civilization. Students who have transferred credit for an equivalent course taken elsewhere may request release from the requirement. With the exception of certain basic courses, which are offered every summer, the program changes yearly in a cyclic form.

Use of Spanish  No student is admitted who is not willing and able to use Spanish exclusively while in attendance. Each student is required to pledge his word of honor to observe this regulation.

Books  General supplies and text books published in this country may be purchased at the College Bookstore, in the Student Union Building. The Librería of the Spanish School is located in the social room of Hepburn Hall. Here the required books in the literature and civilization courses, and other titles printed abroad, are on sale.

The College Library has a Spanish library of over 6,000 titles, covering the areas of language, literature, history and civilization, selected to fill the needs of the students at every level. Representative periodicals of Spain and Spanish America are received, in order to inform the students of the most recent trends in literature and education in the Spanish speaking world.

Accommodations  One of the most attractive features of the school is the friendliness which exists between the faculty and students, in no small measure due to the fact that the faculty and staff, as well as all students, reside in the dormitories. Gifford and Hepburn Halls provide attractive and comfortable accommodations for the increasing enrollment of the Spanish School.

The offices of the Director and Dean are in Hillcrest Laboratory.

All members of the school take their meals together in the Proctor Dining Hall. A system of rotation provides an opportunity for all to become better acquainted.

Activities Activities outside the classroom are an important feature of life in the Spanish School. Whether it is a picnic, a game of croquet, a tennis or golf match, a dance or a hand of cards, the object is to live it and play it in Spanish and to broaden one's acquaintanceship with every phase of Spanish life and customs.

The singing of Spanish folk songs, the presentation of good Spanish theatre, the attendance at Spanish moving pictures, all are designed to add to the student's enjoyment and knowledge.

Scholarships A few scholarships of one hundred dollars each will be available this summer. Only students who would be unable to attend without such financial assistance, are eligible. These awards will be made on the basis of need, merit, and scholastic promise. Application should be made to the Dean before April first. The awards will be announced by April 15.

The Juan A. Centeno Memorial Scholarship was established in the summer of 1949 by the students and faculty of the Middlebury Spanish Summer School, in memory of the beloved teacher who was Director of the School for fifteen years. The fund is still growing, and further contributions will be gladly received. The income from this permanent fund provides a scholarship for a specially deserving student in the Spanish School.

Self-Help A limited number of students may earn their board by acting as waiters and waitresses in the Spanish dining-halls. A speaking knowledge of Spanish is essential for one of these positions. Those interested should apply to the Dean before April first; awards will be announced by April 15.

Graduate School in Spain Middlebury College also conducts a Graduate School of Spanish in Spain. A selected group of graduate students spend the academic year in Madrid, enrolled in advanced courses, under the supervision of a resident representative of Middlebury College. The Middlebury Master of Arts degree is awarded to those who successfully complete an approved program. See the inside back cover of this bulletin.

Correspondence Communications regarding admission, courses, credits and other academic information should be addressed to Prof. Samuel Guarnaccia, Dean of the Spanish Summer School, Middlebury College, Middlebury, Vermont. Correspondence concerning fees and rooms should be addressed to the Secretary of the Language Schools, Middlebury College.
Middlebury College conducts a Graduate School of French in France, a Graduate School of German in Germany, a Graduate School of Italian in Italy, and a Graduate School of Spanish in Spain. Sixty-two American students are now enrolled in the University of Paris under this plan; fifty students at the University of Mainz; fifteen at the University of Florence; and seventy-one in Madrid.

The students spend the academic year on a coordinated program of advanced instruction in linguistics, phonetics, literature, history, the arts and social institutions. These courses are followed in the Faculties or other divisions and institutes, or in specially arranged graduate study, in Paris, Mainz, Florence, and Madrid. The students work under the close guidance and supervision of a resident representative of Middlebury College. At the close of the year, final examinations are administered under his direction, and the successful candidates receive the Middlebury Master of Arts degree, in addition to any foreign certificates or diplomas which they may earn.

A preliminary summer of preparation at the Middlebury Summer School is normally required, and only those who prove themselves qualified are allowed to enroll. Members of the group are treated as mature graduate students. They make their own arrangements for transportation, board and room, with the advice and guidance of the Middlebury Director. The Director facilitates worthwhile social contacts, and assists their plans for travel, visits to museums, and attendance at theaters and concerts. Each member is officially enrolled as a graduate student at Middlebury College, and pays his tuition fee to the college; this covers all enrollment, examination, and other academic fees in the foreign university. Veterans may use their G. I. credits under this plan.
